

Preface:

One Hundred Years Thinking the Tractatus

KURT WISCHIN

DISPUTATIO COULD NOT ALLOW THE CENTENNIAL of the publication of one of the most influential books in 20th Century philosophy to pass without taking notice. We are very grateful that several renowned scholars accepted our invitation to reflect on Wittgenstein's masterpiece of his youth and share their thoughts with us.

You will find the title and an abstract of their contribution in the table of contents, as well as a brief description of their philosophical background. Given that many of them are well acquainted for the readers of the Wittgenstein literature and don't need to be introduced, further comments would appear to be redundant.

The abstracts present a very concise summary of the topics discussed that shall allow you to decide if the subject is of interest to you - I hope you find all of them inviting.

My deepest thanks go to our authors for having set aside their valuable time on such short notice to produce contributions for Disputatio's commemoration of the Tractatus-Anniversary or allow us, in the case of Juliet Floyd and Pasquale Frascaola, to translate into Spanish some previous work and include in the present monograph.

This issue is the first of two parts discussing the Tractatus on the occasion of the centennial of its publication. We plan on putting together a second part in March of 2022. For many authors we had invited, the time available was just too short to compose an article having the rigour and content they put themselves to.

K. Wischin (✉)
Universidad de Granada, España
e-mail: kurt.wischin@gmail.com

Disputatio. Philosophical Research Bulletin
Vol. 10, No. 18, Sept. 2021, pp1-3
ISSN: 2254-0601 | [EN] | ARTÍCULO

Without further ado, I put the first part of this first part of “Thinking the Tractatus” in your hands.

The editor

Preface. One Hundred Years Thinking the Tractatus

Disputatio could not allow the centennial of the publication of one of the most influential books in 20th Century philosophy to pass without taking notice. We are very grateful that several renowned scholars accepted our invitation to reflect on Wittgenstein’s masterpiece of his youth and share their thoughts with us.

Prefacio: Cien Años pensando el Tractatus

Disputatio no pudo dejar pasar el centenario de la publicación de uno de los libros de filosofía más influyentes del siglo XX sin tomar nota. Estamos sumamente agradecidos que varios eruditos reconocidos hayan aceptado nuestra invitación de reflexionar sobre la obra maestra de la juventud de Wittgenstein y compartir sus pensamientos con nosotros.

KURT WISCHIN es miembro de FiloLab UGR Unidad de Excelencia de la Universidad de Granada, España. Doctorando [≈ CPhil] en Filosofía en la Universidad de Granada. Su primer contacto formativo con la filosofía académica se produjo en Viena durante la década de 1970. Obtuvo una licenciatura en Filosofía en la Universidad Autónoma de Querétaro y una Maestría en Filosofía en la Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México. Su trabajo en filosofía toma como punto de partida la filosofía de Wittgenstein, en particular tal como se condensa en Investigaciones filosóficas. Sus actividades de investigación actuales se centran en los años fundacionales de la filosofía contemporánea de la lógica y el lenguaje, poniendo especial énfasis en el desarrollo de la doctrina de Frege y su influencia en la formación del Tractatus, así como en la filosofía analítica en general temprana. Ha publicado diversos artículos, capítulos de libro, traducciones y reseñas académicas.

INFORMACIÓN DE CONTACTO | CONTACT INFORMATION: Departamento de Filosofía I. Universidad de Granada. Edificio de la Facultad de Psicología, Campus de la Cartuja. 18011 Granada, España. e-mail (✉): kurt.wischin@gmail.com

HISTORIA DEL ARTÍCULO | ARTICLE HISTORY

Received: 25-March-2019; Accepted: 2-September-2019; Published Online: 17-September-2019

COMO CITAR ESTE ARTÍCULO | HOW TO CITE THIS ARTICLE

Wischin, Kurt (2021). «Preface. One Hundred Years Thinking the Tractatus». Disputatio. Philosophical Research Bulletin 10, no. 18: pp. 1-3.

© Studia Humanitatis – Universidad de Salamanca 2021